Equipping future leaders for the Asian Century

From 2015 UWA will offer an exciting new Graduate Diploma in Chinese Business Law. Designed to equip future leaders for the Asian Century, this course is applicable for those in both the law and non-law sectors. You will develop up-to-date and practical knowledge of Chinese law, economy, cross-border investment as well as essential cultural literacy.

Suited to both those engaged in full time employment, or recent graduates, you will be taught intensively over 3-4 day learning blocks which may include weekends. The course will be delivered at UWA’s Crawley Campus, situated in Perth, Western Australia’s capital city, and Australia’s largest trading partner with China.

The course also offers a unique learning experience in the form of an elective Engagement Tour of China, visiting Shanghai, Beijing and/or other important cities.*

You will be taught by world-class experts, including course director Professor Ken Shao, a leader in Chinese Law and culture education programs for the non-Chinese Learner.
