The Problems with Amann: Would an Agreement-Centred Approach to Remoteness Benefit Australian Jurisprudence?
Hugh Davis .......................................................... 1

Reigniting the Lamp: The Case for Including People who are Blind or Deaf as Jurors
Brock Budworth, Trevor Ryan and Lorana Bartels ................................................. 29

Jumping the Wall: Geoblocking, Circumvention and the Law
Thomas Burke ........................................................................................................ 56

Trust the People or Business as Usual? An Examination of Lay Participation in the Japanese Criminal Justice System
Kenny Yang ............................................................................................................ 69

Patient’s Medical Records, Privacy and Copyright in Nigeria: On-Going Research
Titilayo O. Aderibigbe and Bankole Sopido .......................................................... 88

Fragile Barriers: International Humanitarian Law in the Polar Regions
Wygene Chong ........................................................................................................ 110

Case Note

The Duty We Owe: Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder, Indigenous Imprisonment and Churnside v Western Australia [2016] WASCA 146
Jacqueline Baker .................................................................................................... 119

Book Review

Hybridization of Food Governance. Trends, Types and Results
Michael Blakeney .................................................................................................... 136