10th Australasian Property Law Teachers Conference

Property and Sustainability

UWA FACULTY OF LAW. Perth, Western Australia
24–26 September 2010

Register online: www.law.uwa.edu.au/events/10thAPLTC
CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The University of Western Australia Law School takes pleasure in hosting the 10th Australasian Property Law Teachers Conference to be held from Friday, 24th September until Sunday afternoon, 26th September 2010. Property law teachers and other scholars working in the general area of property law are invited.

The conference will commence with introductory drinks on Friday evening at the UWA Law School. The presentation of the conference papers will begin on Saturday morning and will run through until Sunday afternoon.

The theme of this year’s conference is “Property and Sustainability”. Papers reflecting the broad theme of the conference are particularly encouraged. However, property law teachers and other participants are welcome to present any paper relating to property law. It is envisaged that one session of the conference may deal with the teaching of property law. There will be two plenary papers presented at this year’s conference.

REGISTRATION

The registration fee for the conference is $350 (inc GST). The registration fee includes: introductory drinks, all lunches, morning and afternoon teas, and the conference dinner. Register online: www.law.uwa.edu.au/events/10thAPLTC

For enquiries regarding the conference contact: Penny.Carruthers@uwa.edu.au

ACCOMMODATION

A range of accommodation is suggested below. Conference delegates are required to book their accommodation directly with the hotel. September is a very popular time for visitors to Perth so we would recommend delegates book early. With the exception of St Catherine’s College, all hotels are either a short bus or taxi ride to the university – or a longish, bracing walk!

- St Catherine’s College – http://www.stcatherines.uwa.edu.au/FC_Accommodation.asp
  Limited number of low cost rooms available. St Catherine’s College is located on the doorstep of the university, an enjoyable stroll to the conference venues.

  Sullivans is located on the edge of the Perth city centre. Delegates should contact Marco Batacchi (marco@sullivanshotel.com.au) to obtain a discounted rate on a standard room ($164 reduced from $182).

- For information regarding other accommodation, visit the WA Tourist Commission: www.westernaustralia.com/au